

SECURITY MANAGEMENT POLICY OF KOZLODUY NPP EAD

The security policy of Kozloduy NPP involves protection of the nuclear facilities, nuclear material and radioactive substances from external and insider threats.

The Kozloduy NPP EAD security policy objectives are:

- prevention of unauthorised removal, theft and other illicit takings of nuclear and radioactive materials;
- protection of the nuclear installations, nuclear material and radioactive substances against sabotage;
- detection and neutralization of adversaries;
- mitigating the effects of sabotage;
- locating and regaining control of missing nuclear or radioactive material.

The Management of Kozloduy NPP EAD seeks to achieve these objectives through:

- strict compliance with the legal and regulatory framework;
- risk analysis and risk management;
- protection of confidential information;
- implementing, sustaining and maintaining an effective system of physical protection and access control;
- maintaining of guards and response forces;
- preparedness for response in emergency situations;
- maintaining and developing of a strong nuclear security culture.

In pursuance of its intentions, the Management is committed to supporting the structure, organisation, and management system with the necessary financial and material resources, highly qualified, trained and well-motivated personnel to protect the nuclear facilities, nuclear material and radioactive substances from any external or insider threats.

The Security Policy of Kozloduy NPP EAD is communicated to all the Company employees and each and every one of them is responsible for applying its principles in their efforts towards achieving a high level of security.